

As the Fish and Wildlife Chaplain, I am committed to:

- Bringing respect & honor to the badge and the men & women who wear it.
- Pledging a presence to the needs of our Fish and Wildlife Officers and their families.
- Subjecting my life to the accountability of a life of faith.
- Offering professionalism of service, including confidential listening and counsel.
- Being a mentor to young officers and their families.

You can join with me through prayer or by making a tax-deductible financial gift.

*Your prayers & financial support allow me to fill the need for ministry to these special people.
Because you are willing to give, I am able to serve.*

The State of Washington does not provide a salary for this position. All of my financial support is raised from local churches, businesses, individuals & other organizations. Consider partnering with me in this special ministry.

You can make a onetime gift, or
